

Auction Catalog 2017

AUCTION RULES

- The Silent Auction will begin as outlined in the program and continue without interruption until all sections have closed. The Live Auction will begin afterwards.
- Payment by the successful bidder should be made at the close of the Live Auction. Payment may be made with all major credit cards, approved checks or cash.
- All checks should be made payable to the Charity.
- The Charity has attempted to describe and catalog all items correctly and all items are offered "as is/where is". All sales are final and there will be no exchanges or refund.
- All auction items must be removed from event venue on the evening of the auction. A "Paid" receipt, obtained from the auction cashier, must be presented before items can be removed. For large items, please make arrangements for pickup with the Charity.
- The auction checkout invoice should serve as your official receipt for items purchased. The value set forth for each item is a good faith estimate of the fair market value as required by the IRS. Please consult your tax professional.
- Unless otherwise specified, all auction travel items and services must be used within one year of the auction date.
- Conduct of the auction and increments of bidding are at the direction and discretion of the Auctioneer. In the case of a tie bid, the Auctioneer has final say on the bid winner. In the Silent Auction, bidding must follow the pre-printed increments on the silent auction bid form. No write-in bids or bid stickers that are not within provided blank/price will be accepted.
- Each person issued a bid number assumes all risks and hazards related to the auction and items obtained at the auction. Each bidder agrees to hold harmless from any liability arising there from the Charity, its elected and appointed officials, members, and employees, the Auctioneer, the auction company and its agents and employees, the event organizers, sponsors, and or volunteers connected with the auction.
- The auction is conducted under TDLR rules and regulations by Greer Auction Services, LLC TAL #16938.
